

1066 COUNTRY

Terms and Conditions

General Terms and Conditions (all members)

- All businesses wishing to become members of the 1066 Country Marketing Partnership should have a legitimate interest in tourism.
- Members must supply at least one image for their page. Where subjects are identifiable, members must have all necessary consents to meet GDPR requirements.
- Relevant members will contribute (where appropriate) to 1066 Country Marketing statistics gathering.
- Members must provide a URL link to visit1066country.com from their own website.
- Members are encouraged to add the 1066 Country origin Sussex 'marque' to their promotional materials, including website homepage. This can be downloaded from the branding materials on the website.
- 1066 Country reserves the right to remove any member from visit1066country.com if substantiated complaints are received.
- 1066 Country Marketing's payment terms and conditions are 28 days upon issue of invoice. Members who fail to settle accounts by the designated date will cease to be part of the programme.
- 1066 Country Marketing reserves the right to terminate membership or refuse applications from organisations who do not meet the terms & conditions set out in this document.
- Members are responsible for ensuring the accuracy of their listings and for providing up-to-date information, including any changes to prices, opening times, or availability.
- Members should have their own terms and conditions clearly set out and available for customers booking online.